

GIVE YOUR CUSTOMER THE DECK THEY DESERVE

Australian Tallowwood Hardwood Decking

Tallowwood is a prestigious timber that is sought after by architects. It is an exceptionally durable hardwood species with unique colour and grain structure. It is predominately yellowish brown with a tinge of olive green and beautiful growth rings.

Benefits:

- High rot and termite resistance
- Very high durability, hardness and density
- Suitable for marine applications

Natural Durability Class
In-ground contact	1
Outside above ground contact	1
Naturally Termite Resistant to AS3660
R = Resistant NR = Non resistant	R
Janka	8.6

For special pricing please contact your local Boral Timber sales representative.